Celebrities Have Favorite Charities: Quantity of Celebrities Per Charity

Method_Scrape looktothestars.org/celebrity and looktothestars.org/charity on 26 January 2007. Perform relational analysis between /celebrity and /charity. Show quantity of celebrities engaged per charity.

UN Millennium Project (5) (RED) (6)

Screen Actor's Guild Foundation (7) Keep A Child Alive (7)

MusiCares (8) The Trevor Project (8) Oxfam (8) Save the Children (8)

Los Angeles Free Clinic (9) Live 8 (9) Project A.L.S. (9) RADD (9)

Love Our Children USA (12) Project HOME (11) Habitat For Humanity (10) Prince's Trust (10)

War Child (16) The Hollywood Cookbook (21) Comic Relief (15) Amnesty International (14)

Make Poverty History (26) UNICEF (28) Dream Foundation (26)

The HollyRod Foundation (24) ONE Campaign (25) Clothes Off Our Back (23)

Declare Yourself (14) Red Cross (13) Luke Neuhedel Foundation (13) HELP USA (12)

Pediatric Epilepsy Project (10) Artists Against Racism (10) SixDegrees.org (10)

David Foster Foundation (9) The Art of Elysium (9) St. Jude Children's Research Hospital (9)

End Hunger Network (7) National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (7) PETA (7)

Andre Agassi Charitable Foundation (7) Cinema For Peace (6)

Children in Need (5)

Source_looktothestars.org

Findings_UNICEF, the United Nations agency that hosted the first U.N. Goodwill Ambassadors in the 1950s (Danny Kaye and Audrey Hepburn) remains the most popular celebrity charity, followed by Make Poverty History and the Dream Foundation, according to looktothestars.org. Children, poverty and health are among celebrities' favorite issues, corresponding, respectively to favorite charities UNICEF, Make Poverty History and the Dream Foundation, the last of which is dedicated to 'granting dreams to terminally ill adults.'

